

Job Posting

Submission ID: 1653828 - x5a735a07470d75.79952193

The message has been sent from 205.124.234.182 (United States) at 2018-02-01 12:18:47

Position	Assistant Aquatic Life Support Operator
Facility	Utah's Hogle Zoo
Location	Salt Lake City, UT
Job Summary	Utah's Hogle Zoo is announcing the opening of a full-time Assistant Aquatic Life Support Operator. The Assistant position is responsible for the day to day routine operation of the Zoo's water exhibits life support systems. Work involves assisting with the maintenance and monitoring of filtration systems, pumps, motors, valves, gear boxes and other associated mechanical equipment. Will also take water samples and maintain routine water chemistry and recording data. Will be on call for emergencies and may work variable shifts. This is an entry-level full-time hourly position reporting to Aquatic Life Support Supervisor.
Essential Functions	Assists with the maintenance and monitoring of all filtration systems Makes routine operation adjustments such as cleaning baskets, strainers and drains Takes samples and maintains routine water chemistry within appropriate parameters using sanitizers and other chemicals. Performs minor repairs on equipment Drains and cleans pools and other aquatic installations within established protocol Assists in pump and motor repair or replacement Maintains accurate records and data collection during work shift. Maintains and monitors clean work areas Ensure safety procedure and policies are followed. Organizes and keeps inventories of tools and chemicals as well as supplies
Other Duties and Responsibilities
Knowledge, Skills and Abilities	Experience in one of the electrical, mechanical or construction trades, wastewater treatment, mechanical maintenance or an Associate's degree in Biology or other natural sciences. Must have a high school diploma or equivalency diploma Ability to use application software, such as Word, Excel, MS Office, and work order management system. Certified diver a plus Ability to collect data and maintain accurate records. Must have or be able to obtain a good working knowledge of the Zoo's water exhibit support systems function. Must have an aptitude for maintaining appropriate water chemistry within established parameters.

	Working knowledge of proper inventory techniques The ability to work on ones feet for extensive periods of time, in adverse conditions (e.g. cramped spaces and wet environment). Must be able to lift safely up to 50+ pounds Must be able to pass swimming and water safety test. Must be able to maintain clean work areas. Must be able to establish and maintain effective working relationships. Other duties as assigned
Education & Experienced Required	This is a full-time, entry level position.
Licenses and Certifications Required
Physical Requirements
Working Conditions
Salary	$14.00-15.00/hr
Respond To	Please apply on our website, www.hoglezoo.org . For more information, please email Shannon Cunningham, scunningham@hoglezoo.org
Closing date	03/01/2018

Entry ID

196